

Transitions in the 2.5 GHz Band: Sprint Nextel Regulatory Perspective

Sprint Nextel Corporation
February 16, 2006

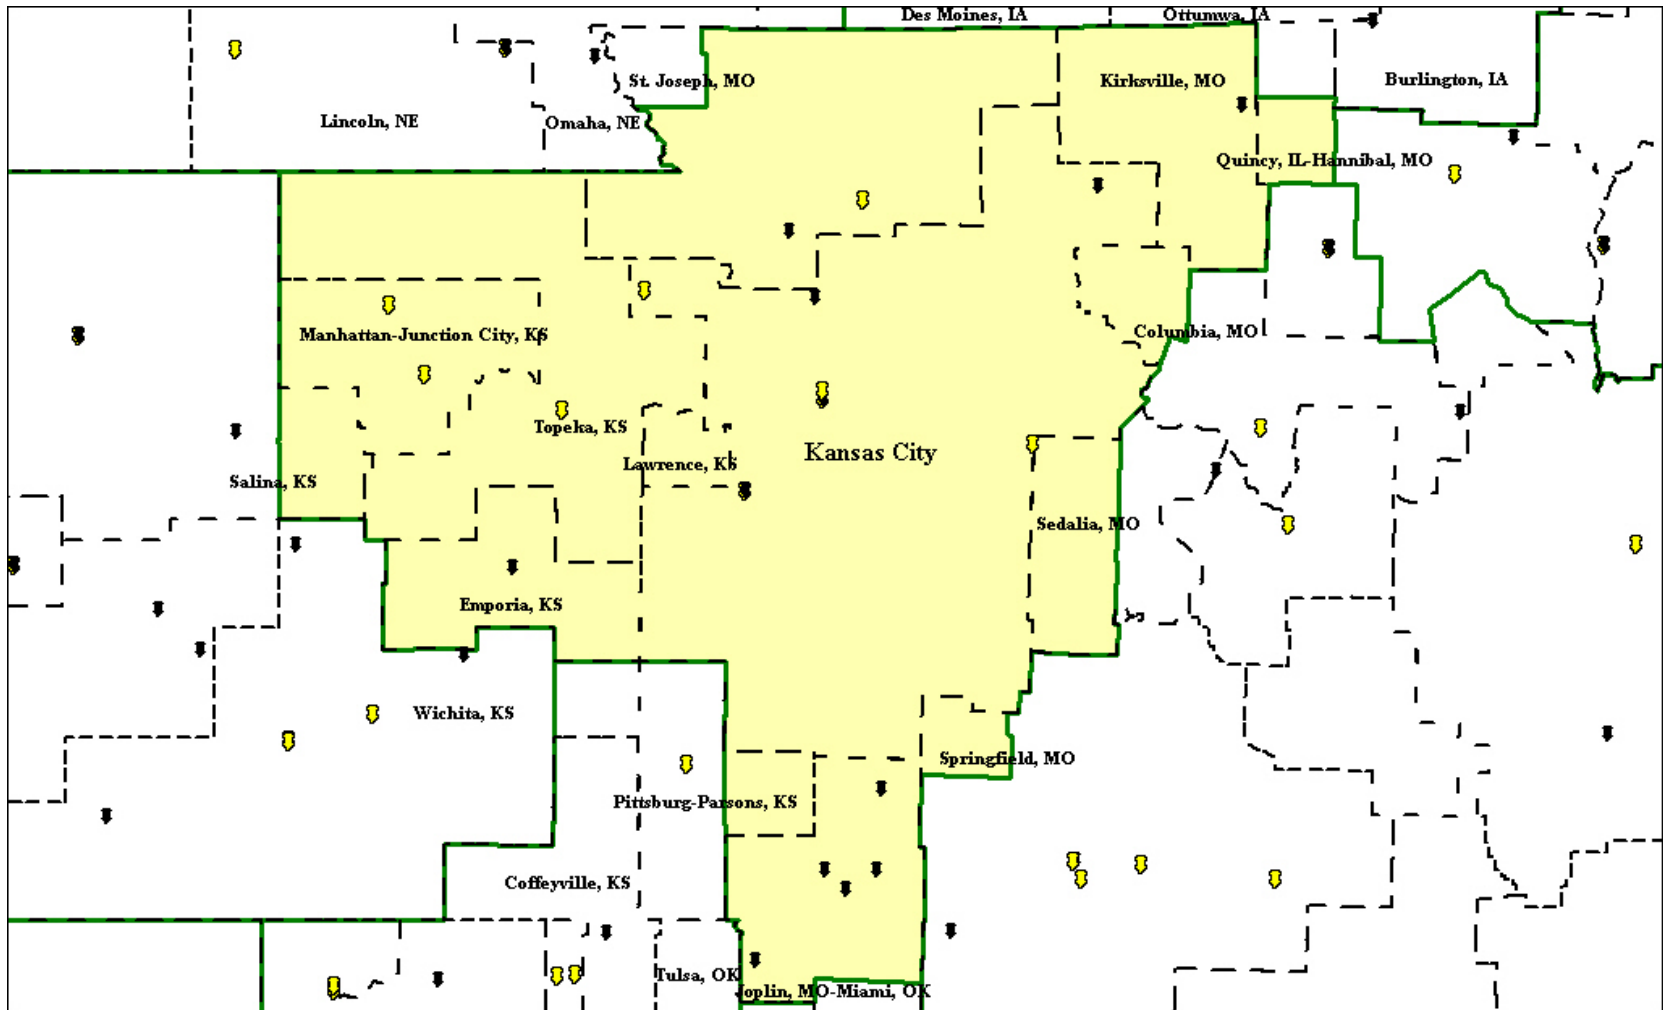

Washington MEA

Washington MEA Update

- Sprint Nextel initiated the transition process in Washington, D.C. on November 25, 2005 by sending Pre-Transition Data Request (PTDR) to licensees within the MEA
- Hosted kick-off meeting with licensees of the MEA on December 13, 2005
- Followed up with the licensees to assist them in completing the PTDR
- Brought licensees together on February 14, 2006 for a follow-up meeting
- To date, about 75% of the affected licensees (excluding call signs licensed to Sprint Nextel) have responded to the PTDR

Kansas City MEA

Kansas City MEA Update

- Sprint Nextel initiated the transition process in Kansas City on January 18, 2006 by sending a PTDR to licensees within the MEA
- Sprint Nextel hosted a kick-off meeting with licensees of the MEA on January 24, 2005
- Followed up with the licensees to assist them in completing the PTDR
- To date, about 25% of the affected licensees (excluding call signs licensed to Sprint Nextel) have responded to the PTDR